Project LEAD

BACKGROUND

Too many people of color are left out of leadership roles. For more than 25 years, United Way has been working to change that. Project LEAD—Leadership, Effectiveness and Diversity—is an in-depth, four-week training program that provides participants with the skills and tools to effectively guide a governance board in today’s changing environment. The program utilizes the services of top professional trainers who volunteer their time. Project LEAD takes a step further to actively match these skilled volunteers with nonprofit boards and committees.

Project LEAD is an opportunity for people of color to further develop their leadership and management potential while serving the community. The program also strengthens the governance capacity of local nonprofit organizations by providing board members who are diverse, understand their responsibilities and possess the skills to lead an organization.

OPPORTUNITY

We must change who is at the table in order to achieve equity in our community. An investment in Project LEAD will allow us to work toward the goal of equity within our community; further strengthening the program and increasing the number of participants.
